VHDA Chief Elected NCSHA Treasurer

RICHMOND – Susan F. Dewey, executive director of the Virginia Housing Development Authority, was elected treasurer of the National Council of State Housing Agencies during NCSHA’s recent Legislative Conference in Washington, D. C.

“We are extremely fortunate that Susan agreed to serve as treasurer,” said NCSHA Executive Director Barbara Thompson. “Her experience and energy are invaluable, and I know NCSHA will benefit from her leadership.”

NCSHA was created as a nonprofit advocacy organization by the nation’s state housing finance agencies nearly 30 years ago. In addition to HFAs in every state, NCSHA members include more than 350 affiliated organizations working in the affordable housing field.

A native of Chesapeake, Dewey received her B.B.A. and M.B.A. from the College of William & Mary. Before joining VHDA in 1999, she served as Treasurer of the State of Virginia.

VHDA is Virginia’s housing finance agency. It is a self-supporting authority that issues bonds to raise private capital for its lending programs. VHDA provides consumers with low-interest rate loans to purchase or renovate homes. VHDA also lends money to developers for the development, rehabilitation and renovation of affordable apartments.
