HOUSING VIRGINIA ANNOUNCES UPCOMING SOURCEBOOK WEBINARS IN FEBRUARY 2011

Housing Virginia, a partnership committed to providing access to high quality affordable housing, has announced it is hosting two SOURCEBOOK webinars during February 2011.

The SOURCEBOOK is Virginia's new resource for the most current information available on housing affordability and housing in your local area.

The webinars will:

- Provide an overview of the SOURCEBOOK;
- Teach attendees how to use the SOURCEBOOK;
- Show how to customize the SOURCEBOOK to your local area; and
- Review all the latest updates.

For complete details, or to register for the webinar on February 15 at 3 p.m. or February 22 at 1 p.m., please click here.

VHDA works hand-in-hand as a Housing Virginia partner to promote affordable housing in communities across the state. VHDA's Executive Director, Susan Dewey, is one of the founders of Housing Virginia, and an active board member.

About Housing Virginia

Housing Virginia is a non-profit organization that represents a diverse collaboration of housing organizations in Virginia that share a common desire to help educate Virginians about the benefits of affordable communities. It believes that affordable housing is the basic building block for individual growth, community revitalization and economic development. Members include REALTORS®, lenders, homebuilders and developers, nonprofits and state and local governments.
