AFFORDABLE HOUSING EVENT TO BE HELD IN BRUNSWICK COUNTY

SCORE, Inc. to unveil new housing development and introduce VHDA Homebuyer Club

Plans for a new affordable housing community in Brunswick County, VA will be unveiled during a free homeownership event to be held at 6:30 p.m. on February 22, 2007 in Room 108 of the Workforce Development Center, located at Southside Virginia Community College's Christanna Campus in Alberta, VA.

The event is sponsored by Setting Children on the Road to Empowerment (SCORE, Inc.), a non-profit organization serving Southside Virginia. Brunswick County Administrator Charlette T. Woolridge will also be present to discuss affordable housing options.

During the event, attendees will be able to:

- View renderings of floor plans in the new affordable housing community;
- Learn about potential down payment and closing cost assistance; and
- Learn about different aspects of homeownership that will assist them in becoming successful homeowners.

In addition, the Virginia Housing Development Authority will announce the start of a new Homebuyer Club for the Brunswick County area. The club will begin offering free homeownership education classes on March 1, 2007. Topics will include personal finances, credit reports and home maintenance.

Attendees must RSVP for the event by February 20, 2007 by contacting Chris Stephenson by e-mail at kstphns2@aol.com or by calling him at (434) 848-9449.
