FREE VHDA HOMEOWNERSHIP CLASSES SET FOR NORTHERN VIRGINIA IN FEBRUARY

Are you thinking about buying a home, but not sure where to start, especially in challenging economic times? The Virginia Housing Development Authority's free First-time Homebuyer Class can help.

In one day of training, you'll learn the entire homebuying process from start to finish, and how to stay on track as a responsible homeowner. The class is offered in English or Spanish, in person or online – and it's free, with no obligation.

Attend one of the many free sessions throughout February 2016 in Northern Virginia to learn about the advantages of homeownership.

About VHDA

VHDA is a self-supporting, not-for-profit organization created by the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1972, to help Virginians attain quality, affordable housing. VHDA provides mortgages, primarily for first-time homebuyers and developers of quality rental housing. We use no state taxpayer dollars, but raise money in the capital markets to fund our loans. We also teach free homeownership classes, and help people with disabilities and the elderly make their homes more livable. VHDA works with lenders, developers, local governments, community service organizations and others to help put quality housing within the reach of every Virginian.
