Top Producing Mortgage Loan Officers Recognized by VHDA

Loan Officers Helped Make Homeownership a Reality For Many Virginians

RICHMOND – The Virginia Housing Development Authority recently recognized 58 mortgage loan officers across the state for originating the most VHDA loans in fiscal year 2018. The commitment of these individuals to uphold VHDA’s mission of providing quality, affordable housing turned the dream of homeownership into a reality for many of the 7,200 Virginia households that obtained VHDA home loans in 2018.

“VHDA is honored to recognize these loan officers who continue to support our mission,” said Dan Kern, VHDA Business Development & Training Manager. “The first-time homebuyer segment of the market can be a very challenging one in which to work, so the fact that these lending professionals chose to pursue and excel in this area shows a true passion for the necessity and benefits of affordable housing. In addition, teaching VHDA homeownership education classes and serving on VHDA’s homeownership advisory board are just some of the ways that they give back to the communities that they serve.”

“VHDA has helped so many of my clients buy homes that they wouldn’t have qualified for otherwise,” said VHDA Platinum Circle producer Stacey Seim of Atlantic Bay Mortgage Group in Virginia Beach. “The down payment and closing cost assistance grants have been instrumental in helping my clients overcome the savings barrier to homeownership. In addition, VHDA’s first mortgage products, like the conventional No Mortgage Insurance program, have really helped them by providing affordable payments. Thanks VHDA!”

“VHDA is an important partner in working with first-time homebuyers,” added VHDA Platinum Circle producer Marianne Weddington of Village Bank Mortgage in Midlothian, VA. “Their combination of loan programs, grant programs, and education gives these buyers the opportunity to achieve the dream of homeownership. Thanks to these customers and VHDA, I’ve been given many opportunities to share in the joy and excitement that people experience as they receive the keys to their first home.”

About VHDA

When homes are affordable and accessible to jobs, good schools and transportation, everyone benefits. Individual lives are improved and communities as a whole grow stronger. VHDA was created in 1972 by the General Assembly to help Virginians attain quality, affordable housing. We carry out this mission by working in public-private partnerships with local governments, community service organizations, lenders, Realtors, developers and many others. We provide mortgages for first-time homebuyers, as well as financing for apartment communities and neighborhood revitalization efforts. We offer free homebuyer classes, support housing counseling, and help people with disabilities and the elderly make their homes more livable. We also administer the federal Housing Choice Voucher and Housing Credit programs in Virginia. VHDA is self-supporting and receives no state taxpayer dollars to fund our programs. Instead, we raise money in the capital markets, and we contribute a significant portion of our net revenues each year to help meet Virginia's most difficult housing needs.
